

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Free Private Enterprise System has provided for the United States and the State of South Dakota the highest standard of living and the best quality of life in the entire known history of mankind and has made it possible for the average person in the United States to have a surplus of income over the necessities of life; and,

WHEREAS, The Free Private Enterprise System is the cornerstone for our political and personal freedoms and equality of opportunity; and,

WHEREAS, Free Private Enterprise, Business and Industry provide the resources for the wages for all employees, the resources to maintain government programs, and funds for churches, charitable institutions and philanthropy for untold numbers of worthwhile endeavors; and,

WHEREAS, Economic growth is the only means of assuring the continuation and expansion of economic and social opportunities for all Americans; and,

WHEREAS, Free Private Enterprise and economic growth in the State of South Dakota play significant roles in the continued development of a stable, prosperous and free society:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 17, 1981, as

GROWTH DAY

In South Dakota in tribute to the contributions of American free private enterprise to America's prosperity, democracy and freedom under law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
